

Palo Verde High Magnet School Hall of Fame Nominating Application

Palo Verde High Magnet School is proud to announce a call for nominees for Induction to the Palo Verde High Magnet School Hall of Fame.

Complete the attached application and return all requested information by October 1 to:

Jason.karn@tusd1.org

Or

Jason Karn
1302 S. Avenida Vega
Tucson, Arizona 85710

For more information, you may contact:
Jason Karn 520-584-7435

Palo Verde Hall of Fame Selection Criteria

- A student nominee must be at least 5 years removed from his/her high school graduation and meet, at the sole discretion of the Hall of Fame committee, at least two of the following selection attributes:
 - A staff nominee must be at least 3 years removed from his/her work/employment and meet, at the discretion of the Hall of Fame committee, at least two of the following selection attributes:
- 1. Academic- The nominee will have achieved a level of academic excellence as a student or instructor. Excellence is defined as a significant contribution or achievement that clearly demonstrates the nominee's dedication and passion for learning or teaching.

- 2. Athletic- Excellence in athletic skill and sportsmanship are inseparable in determining the sum total of a nominee's athletic accomplishments. Excellence is determinable on many levels but is uniquely judged as greatly exceeding consensus expectations.
- 3. Community Involvement- Volunteerism is at the heart of community involvement and further defined as unselfishly giving of one's time for the betterment of a community-orientated cause. A community- orientated cause is understood to represent any effort, through the individual or a group, designed to improve the lives of its members.
- 4. Artistic/Creative- A nominee's artistic contributions include all forms of artistic expression including but not limited to visual, theater, written & musical accomplishments where the nominee's work has made a significant contribution to its audience.
- 5. Professional- A nominee's accomplishments in a chosen profession (excluding Academics and Athletics) will be reviewed in the context of achieving extraordinary results for the benefit of a project, company, group or cause.

Hall of Fame members will be chosen by a review committee and will be honored at the PVHMS Hall of Fame Induction scheduled for around Homecoming or Senior Night

Hall of Fame inductees will be notified by at least one week prior.

Palo Verde High Magnet School
Hall of Fame Application

Your Name _____

Phone Number _____ Email _____

Nominee Name _____

Year of Graduation (if applicable) _____ Phone Number _____

Address _____ Email _____

Biographical Statement (This will be included in the event program and used for publicity, if the nominee is selected.) This can include whatever you wish – best memories, personal achievements, “time to toot their horn.” Please limit this to 100 words.

Please explain how the individual you are nominating exemplifies each of the following characteristics (if applicable):

Academic- The nominee will have achieved a level of academic excellence as a student or instructor. Excellence is defined as a significant contribution or achievement that clearly demonstrates the nominee’s dedication and passion for learning or teaching.

Athletic- Excellence in athletic skill and sportsmanship are inseparable in determining the sum total of a nominee’s athletic accomplishments. Excellence is determinable on many levels but is uniquely judged as greatly exceeding consensus expectations.

Community Involvement- Volunteerism is at the heart of community involvement and further defined as unselfishly giving of one’s time for the betterment of a community-orientated cause. A community- orientated cause is understood to represent any effort, through the individual or a group, designed to improve the lives of its members.

Artistic/Creative- A nominee's artistic contributions include all forms of artistic expression including but not limited to visual, theater, written & musical accomplishments where the nominee's work has made a significant contribution to its audience.

Professional- A nominee's accomplishments in a chosen profession (excluding Academics and Athletics) will be reviewed in the context of achieving extraordinary results for the benefit of a project, company, group or cause.
